BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN

R. B. BARGER,....Proprietor.

W. W. BROWN,.....Editor.

Terms: $2.00 Per Annum in Advance.

BELLEFONTE, PA.,

Wednesday Morning, October 25, 1871.

BUT nine votes were cast against Hon. John J. Pearson, the Republican candidate for re-election as President Judge in the Twelfth Judicial District, composed of Dauphin and Lebanon counties. He received 9,280 votes in Dauphin Co., and 5,910 in Lebanon, showing that all the Republicans and nearly all the Democrats voted for him.

MANDAMUS TO BE APPLIED FOR.—Senator elect. J. M. Weakley, of the Franklin and Cumberland Senatorial district, to whom the Democratic return judges, at the instigation of District Attorney McLaughlin, of Cumberland, refused a certificate of election, will apply to the Supreme Court, now in session in this city, for a mandamus to compel the recreant election officers to perform their duty.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

"GLORIOUS old Centre! Her noble Democracy increased their majority 132 votes, notwithstanding the efforts of nigger, radicals, traitors and disorganizers."—Watchman.

You did increase your majority, did you Mr. Meek? Let us see how this is. By referring to the official return of last year we find that the majority for Peter Gray Meek was 714. The official tables for this year foot up for him only a majority of 386—a loss of 328 in one year. At this rate of increase, Mr. Meek, the Democratic ticket in this county will be beaten about 58 votes in two years from now.

A WORD TO CENTRE COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

Republicans of Centre, we do not wish to find fault. We dislike scolding. Twenty-nine hundred and seventy eight of you did your duty manfully, nobly, faithfully and well. You were at the polls and deposited your votes. Stanton for Auditor General, received 2978 votes, in this county. In 1868 Gen. Hartranft for the same office, in this county received 3388 votes, showing clearly that 410 Republicans remained away from the polls, remained at home on the 2nd Tuesday of October 1871.

Now, friends, do you see the importance of polling every vote? Look at it. Suppose every man of us, had been true to principle, turned out to the election and deposited our votes for the Republican ticket, the whole ticket and nothing but the ticket. Do you not see that we would have elected our whole county ticket? Why Gen. M'Candless, received but 3470 votes, while Peter G. Meek, received but 3366 votes. We should have polled 3388 votes. This would have elected our Associate Judges D. M. Wagner and Benjamin Ligget; our candidate for the Legislature Col. R. M'Farlane, our candidate for county Treasurer Col. Geo. A. Bayard would have been elected by a majority of 13 votes, and A. J. Swartz our candidate for County Commissioner would have been elected by a majority of 52 votes, and the SIX MILL TAX would have been reduced. In a word, our whole county ticket, Republicans of Centre, would have been elected, if you had all done your duty and turned out to the election.

But our ticket received nearly one hundred good honest democratic votes. Men who were disgusted at the conduct of the Ring. To these men we say again all thanks. It is such independent men as you who save the country and compell the leaders of political parties to be honest. We thank you for your manhood, your noble independence. But counting your votes, the returns show that over 500 Republicans did not vote.

Friends we give you these facts and figures for your serious consideration. They show that Centre county is Republican and can be carried for the Republican party if you will only resolve to do your whole duty. One vote! One vote!! The importance of one vote is the great fact which we wish to impress upon your minds at this time.

Unity, harmony, energy is the next great lesson. Let us learn these. Let us ponder over these facts, remembering that the Republican party is the party that saved the Union, and is the true friend of the workingmen. If you will learn this lesson and do your whole duty in accordance therewith Centre county will be ours next fall. To work! To work!!

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY.

Fred Kurtz, and his Peporter of last week are jubilent over the Hon. Jeremiah S. Black's political letter and advice to the Democracy of York county published a few days before the last election. Judge Black, says Fred, "advises men of all parties to vote for none but men of honesty, and tells the Democracy of York, that if any men be upon their ticket who are connected with dishonest practices to scratch such at the polls, as it will be an hundred fold better that such be defeated than that the Democracy endorse their villainies by an election."

This, says Fred, "is the right kind of advice and we are glad to note this and present this matter for the consideration of Centre county Democrats." This is Fred's justification for the Democracy of Potter, Gregg, Penn, Haines, Miles, Harris and Ferguson twps., scratching Meek's name off the Democratic ticket and returning him between one and two hundred votes behind M'Candless and Cooper.

This is a hit direct so far as it goes; but the Democrats did not scratch enough to disconnect Meek from "dishonest practices." He is elected and we agree with Fred, that those Democrats who scratched Meek's name off the ticket are justified in their efforts to prevent, "the rascalities and frauds committed by men in office," "and to take steps to root out this evil."

That is good talk Fred; but how long will you stick to it? How long? Why just till Meek puts the political hippens on you again. Then you will cave, and go under leading strings as usual.

You also, give Meek, a shot between wind and water on the repeal of the Law Library Act, declaring "that Col. M'Farlane, failed to be elected upon that issue," and you "take it to be the best and most conclusive evidence that the intelligent people of Centre county view that issue as a piece of demagogueism and a humbug, and fully sustain the position of the Reporter at the polls, as the same was sustained by the Democracy by its silent contempt in County convention and by ignoring it in their platform adopted in mass convention afterwards."

You know all about that Fred. You were in the Legislature when the Law Library Act was passed, for this county. Meek, when in the Legislature intended to black your Legislative eye, make political capital out of it, by pretending to have the law repealed by the passage of a hypocritical and ridiculous Law, which no Governor could approve of. This Meek knew, or as a Legislator should have known. Yes, he knew, that his attempt to repeal this law was a farce, to be introduced into the late contest, as you say, "as a piece of demagogueism and a humbug."

Go ahead Fred, and so long as you persue a manly and independent course and follow the advice of your beacon light, Judge Black, on this subject and its kind, it will give us great pleasure to report progress, to herald the signs of repentance, and to give you the credit you deserve.

A SECOND BUCKSHOT WAR.

When Thomas H. Burrowes, Secretary of the Commonwealth under Gov. Ritner's administration, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, wrote the famous letter expressing the opinion that until the election then recently held, by which Gov. Ritner had been defeated, was properly investigated, it "ought to be treated as if it had not been held," he aroused the just indignation of all parties, and the Democrats fearing that such an investigation might be had, inaugurated the famous and disgraceful buckshot war. Mr. Burrowes became an active Democrat soon after the promulgation of this famous document, and held for a long time lucrative offices under that party.

The then Whig party was not responsible for this act of Mr. Burrowes, but yet it was so nearly killed by it, that it never came into power afterwards; and such will be the fate of those dishonest Democrats who are now attempting to treat the election as if it had not been held. Mr. Weakley is honestly elected, and will get his seat in spite of the unparalleled outrage committed by the Senatorial return judges in the 19th district. The honest Democrats will see that the laws are vindicated.—Harrisburgh Telegraph.

THE light-house at the entrance of Pensacola harbor was badly damaged by lightning on the morning of the 15th ultimo.

[From the Pittsburgh Commercial, Saturday the 29th inst.

MR. WALLACE IS AT HIS OLD TRICKS.

Defeated, and stung to madness with the destruction of all his plans, he has resorted to the petty trick of inducing the Return Judges of Cumberland and Franklin to withhold the certificate of election from Mr. Weakley, the Republican Senator elect from that District, in order to prevent Mr. Weakley from voting at the organization of the Senate, and so prevent the Republicans from organizing that body.

The stale reason alleged for this, by these Return Judges, is that they have heard that bribery and frauds were practiced at the election. Suppose that to be true (which it is not), what have they got to do with it? Their office is purely ministerial—to add up the votes and certify who has the most. Beyond that they have no power. The law provides a remedy for bribery and fraud, but it does not lodge that remedy in the hands of the Return Judges.

The only evidence cited in support of this charge is an affidavit from some fellow who swears that at Shippensburg he heard two dollars offered for a vote. He does not say by whom nor for whom, nor whether the bribe was accepted. All he proves is that he heard such an offer made; all the rest is conjecture.

It will not do, Mr. Wallace. You cannot hang a case on such a slender thread as this. Mr. Weakley has been fairly and honestly elected, and you know it. And the Republicans of the State, knowing it and feeling strong in in the justice of their cause, do not mean to let you cheat them out of their hard won victory.

This is not a case for argument,—there is nothing to argue. The right is with us, and we mean to have our rights, without quibling or evasion. The time has come for plain speaking, and the Democrats will do well to take heed, in due season, of the danger on which they are rushing.

We, therefore, in the name of the Republicans of Pennsylvania, who have just swept the State by 20,000 majority, serve timely notice on Mr. W. A. Wallace and his co-adjutors not to try and put this dastardly scheme in operation. Mr. Weakley has been elected, AND HE MUST BE SWORN IN. We have seventeen members of the Senate, a legal majority of that body, and we intend to organize it. Let Mr. Wallace read and heed this notice. The Republicans of this State mean it; and he will act wisely if he will take it for granted that they do not intend to be cheated out of their legal rights.

Any attempt of Mr. Wallace to organize a bogus Democratic Senate will be met as it deserves. Neither the House nor the Governor will ever recognize it; and if, by revolutionary acts they attempt to exclude the Republican majority from the right to organize the Senate, there will be means found to circumvent as well as punish them. The Republicans of Pennsylvania know their rights, and knowing, dare maintain them.

We entreat our friends throughout the State not to magnify this molehill into a mountain. It is a scurvy trick, but it will not win. Let them rest assured that every needed step will be taken to guard the rights of the majority; and, when the time comes, the men we have entrusted with power will not be found wanting.

AFLOAT AND ASHORE.

Young Barney O'Toole was a broth of a boy,
Who crossed over the sea with the bold Pat Malloy;
They landed at night—It was rainy and dark—
And next day got a job to work out in the Park.
Said Barney to Pat. "Sure of labor I'm sick—
I'm tired of digging and swinging the pick:
The man who will toil for his bread is a fool—
I was born for a judge," said young Barney O'Toole.

Then he lit up his pipe, and he put on his coat,
And he run for an office. They counted the vote,
And they figured it out by the Tammany rule,
And who was elected but Barney O'Toole!
Then he bought a new coat and a diamond so fine,
And a lad for five cents gave his boots a nice shine;
Then he talked about court, legislation, and school,
For he now was a statesman, bold Barney O'Toole.

We take the foregoing verses from a little work recently published, bearing the title of "Hibernia; or, Ireland the World Over," as the most appropriate legend for Mr. Sheppard's two capital sketches, printed on page 1017. Both artist and poet took their inspiration from life, as every one knows who has taken the pains to read the revelations in the newspapers of the manner in which Tammany has of late years made citizens and office-holders of the raw material from the Emerald Isle.

The immigrant comes over an honest, simple minded working-man. He lands at Castle Garden with the intention of settling down to the steady labor to which he had been accustomed at home. But, instead of going into the country, he gets employment about the saloons of New York, or on the public works, where he hears all the talk of the Tammany runners and politicians; and if he is quick-witted and shrewd, it doesn't take long to develop him into one of the same class. He soon becomes a bar-room brawler, and if he has a ready gift of speaking, he rises to be the leader of a ward club, and ultimately to office. Hundreds of examples could be adduced in illustration of our sketches. As a rule, the Irish are more forward in pushing themselves into politics and office than immigrants of any other nationality, because the Democratic party have found them more serviceable than any other class of foreigners. The Germans generally settle into some kind of useful employment immediately on arriving here. The great majority go West, and become farmers or mechanics. The Irish immigrant, on the contrary, clings to New York, and seeks employment, rather than independent means of livelihood. With all his good qualities—and they are many—he is easily made the tool of a party. This is, doubtless, owing in part to the wrongs the race has suffered for so many generations in his own country; and as time wears on, and the corrupting power of Tammany is broken up, better influences will doubtless bring about a change in the character of our Irish fellow-citizens. They will meddle less in politics when they learn that their worst enemies are the men who thrust them forward merely to serve selfish and corrupt ends; and the day that sees the Irish race emancipated from this servility will be a happy day for them, as it will be for the rest of our people.

FEVERS seldom make an attack without warning, and may often be thrown off by soaking the feet in warm water, wrapping up warm in bed, and taking two or three of Parsons' Purgative Pills.

A Missionary, just returned, says he regards Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as beyond all price, and efficacious beyond any other medicine. It is adapted to a great variety of special cases, and is the best pain killer in the world.

GROWING BETTER AND BETTER.

The October Number of the People's Monthly—the new Pittsburgh Illustrated paper for the masses—is at hand, and is the best and most interesting we have yet seen. It grows better and better with each issue, and excels many of the New York Illustrated papers in the brilliancy of its cuts, and the excellence of its typography, as it most surely does in purity, and family character. We would urge all our readers who have growing boys and girls, to take this paper. It is bright, cheery, and wholesome, abounding in good cuts and original reading matter. The chief features of this paper are, a view of the interior of Allegheny Observatory, the Humboldt Monument, a touching illustrated poem by Bartley Campbell, and many fresh and original articles and tales. Send ten cents to No. 86 Fifth Avenue, for a sample, and see what a western city can do. Subscription only a dollar and a half a year.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

A STERLING OLD POEM.

Who shall judge man from his manners?
Who shall know him by his dress?
Paupers may be fit for princes,
Princes fit for something less.
Crumbled shirt and dirty jacket
May beclothe the golden ore
Of the deepest thoughts and feelings—
Satin vest can do no more.

There are streams of crystal nectar
Ever flowing out of stone;
There are purple beds and golden,
Hidden, crushed and overthrown.
God, who counts by souls, not dresses,
Loves and prospers you and me,
While he values thrones the highest
But as pebbles in the sea.

Man upraised above his fellows,
Oft forgets his fellows then;
Master—rulers—lords, remember
That your meanest kinds are men!
Men of labor, men of feeling,
Men of thought and men of frame,
Claiming equal rights to sunshine
In a man's ennobling name.

There are foam embroidered oceans,
There are little wood-clad rills;
There are feeble inch-high saplings,
There are cedars on the hills.
God, who counts by souls, not stations,
Loves and prospers you and me;
For to him all vain distinctions
Are as pebbles in the sea.

Toiling hands alone are builders
Of a nation's wealth and fame,
Titled laziness is pensioned,
Fed and fattened on the same;
By the sweat of other's foreheads,
Living only to rejoice,
While the poor man's outraged freedom,
Vainly lifts its feeble voice.

Truth and justice are eternal,
Born with loveliness and light;
Secret wrongs shall never prosper
While there is a sunny right.
God, whose world-wide voice is singing
Boundless love to you and me,
Links oppression with its titles
But as pebbles in the sea

Attending His Own Funeral.

A short time since, the San Francisco newspaper contained an account of the death of James Hunter, at San Rafael, giving the day on which the funeral would take place in that town. On the day appointed for the burial a large number of the friends of the family residing in San Francisco, and several ladies and gentlemen who formerly were intimately acquainted with the deceased and his family, and had since taken up their residence in Oakland, repaired to San Rafael to attend the funeral of their old friend. Mr. Hunter, it may be stated here, was a liquor merchant of San Francisco, and had a country residence in San Rafael, and having a large circle of friends, his funeral was largely attended. The church in fact, was full. The ceremonies were conducted with much solemnity, and produced a deep and visible effect upon those who had known and esteemed the departed one. A gentleman who was present—who, by the way, is a prominent city official of Oakland, who had deemed it a duty to attend the last sad rites of his friend informs us that a number of ladies and gentlemen who had accompanied him from this city and San Francisco, were so much affected by the sermon and the loss sustained by the death of Mr. Hunter, that they were unable to restrain their tears and sobs of anguish. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the pall-bearers gathered around the coffin and proceeded to carry it out of the church, when one of the San Francisco ladies was observed to step forward from her seat and throw her arms around the neck of one of the mourners, and, in a half hysterical manner exclaim, "Oh. Mr. Hunter, we thought this was your funeral!" Here was an episode with a vengeance. The coffin was set back on the altar, and around the interrupted pall-bearers gathered some twenty or more of the delegation from San Francisco and Oakland, who had come all the way to attend the funeral of Mr. Hunter. Some held back, their superstition forcing the belief into their minds that their friend's ghost stood before them instead of the genuine flesh and blood reality. As the "yaller kivered" books say, "Let us draw the curtain which hides the dreadful mystery." Mr. James Hunter, liquor dealer of San Francisco, who had a country residence at San Rafael, was as dead as a door nail, and so completely defunct that even old Gabriel's trump wouldn't wake him at this epoch of the world. But there were two James Hunters, both were liquor dealers, and both lucky enough to have a high old scene, as might be supposed. Let us drop the veil.

A Tail of Devotion.

A gentleman, writing from Paris, tells a very pretty story of a peasant and his wife, who were very poor indeed, almost destitute, and so, though they loved each other much, she went out as a nurse to Paris. In Paris she entered the service of some rich Americans, who, when they returned to their own country, offered her terms so tempting that she crossed the Atlantic with them. Year after year she sent her earnings to her husband, and year after year he laid by the hard-won gold, until there was enough of it to buy the cottage he lived in and a little field or two, enough to keep them in independence all their lives. The gentlemen went into the cottage, and saw the new walnut furniture, and was told by the peasant that all this comfort was her doing, all this wealth her winning. She had learned to write, on purpose that she might write to him, and month after month her kindly letters came, cheering him under the trial of her long absence. It was four years since she had left the cottage, and for these four lonely years the father had been like a widower, and the children had grown around him.

A SURPRISE.—"Well," said an old gentleman, the other day, "I have been forty-seven years in the business, and can say what very few can after such experience. In all that time I never disappointed but one single creditor."

"Bless me, what an example for our young community!" replied the person addressed. "What a pity that one time occurred. How was it?"

"Why," responded the old gentleman, "I paid the debt when it became due, and I never, in all my life, saw a man so much astonished."

Two Milwaukie chaps on a drunk saw a "cast iron dog" lying in front of a store, and thought it would be a good joke to put it in a friend's bed. One of them stooped down to pick it up, when the dog fastened on his nose and gave him a regular terrier shake. The young man with his nose in a sling is meditating hydrophobia.

For the REPUBLICAN.

DENVER, COLORADO Sept. 21, 1871.

COL. W. W. BROWN:—

Dear Friend.—Since writing to you before, I have been spending some time on the Plains, and for the satisfaction of our Centre county sportsmen, I will discribe how hunting goes, on the great American desert (now called the plains). The game is large, consisting of Buffalo, Antelope, some Elk and plenty of wolves. After leaving the green and verdant fields of the East where "the cattle are feeding on a thousand hills," to see from the cars large herds of Buffalo, quietly looking at the iron horse passing, is quite a sight to an Eastern man. In the vicinity of Ft. Hayes the trains on the Kansas Pacific are often obliged to stop, to let herds of Uncle Sam's cattle pass. I have seen them knocked from the track. Many are shot from the cars. There are various ways of hunting the Buffalo. One is to get behind a smart team of horses and drive at a rapid rate and overtake a herd and right into them and commence shooting. On horse back is very nice, providing the horse is well trained. On foot does finely, if the team is not far behind. There are thousands killed annually for their hides. I have seen thousands of them in one herd, on the banks of the smokey river. I will just say it is a poor hunter that can't kill a buffalo, when they are plenty, providing he has the right sort of a gun, it wants plenty of lead. Not so with Antelopes, they are only to be shot at long range if they see the hunter.

I feel it my duty to point out to those that are going to take the advantage of the homestead bill in procuring homes, that they will do well by going to the Soleman Valley, or to the Arkansas river bottoms or on Walnut Creek, (all in Kansas). No one should start in my opinion, to take up a homestead without less than $700. As he will want a team and be obliged to get provisions, the first year at least. I have been among those that are enjoying the homestead law, and they live happy. Many of them in sod houses. Their meet cost them nothing only to hunt it. The soil is productive even, I think, on the plains. I spent some time at a place called Russel, it is the north western colony from Wisconsin, they are doing fine,, and are in hopes of making the "desert bloom like the rose."

To cross the plains is a pleasure to any one now, to what it was before the railroad was made and even now it is wearisome to the eyes. I did not see a bush or tree, from Ft. Hayes until I arrived at Denver, a distance of 350 miles. It is well called the plains, (but no desert in my opinion). There is a small grass that grows on the plains, that the cattle and horses are very fond of. Any amount of cactic grows also, and that is about all that there is green. Oftimes you can look and think there is a vast lake at no great distance, but upon getting near, you will find it to be a mirage. I arrived at Denver on the 19th. I found every body excited over the fair, which is now in progress. "Right for the fair shouts the hackmen in all directions." So I concluded to go. I found some very fine vegetables that were raised in California by irrigation. One sweet pumpkin two feet in diametor. Good butter and a fine sheaf of wheat, raised 8,500 feet above the level of the sea without irrigation. All the fine fruits came from California or New York. All the fine cattle came from Kansas or elsewhere. One feature on the fair ground I did not like to see, and that was, a large Hall fitted up in good style, for the sale of strong drink of all kinds, and gambling. But people do not look upon gambling here in Denver, as they do in Pennsylvania. I am really astonished to think that they do not put a stop to it. Each gambling Hell has a Cornet Band, to play in the evenings, and when the crowd assembles all go in to enjoy a hideous night, all shades and color mingle together. Now I have been painting the dark shades to the picture of Denver life, and I will just say, there are bright jewels cast in dark places. All the christian churches are established here the same as elsewhere. The Odd Fellows and Masons have fine lodges established. Since the 1st of January, there has been an increase of 3,-500 in the population. Denver has now nearly 10,000 inhabitants, I was never more taken down, than to see this place as it is. The log cabins I had been expecting to see, are all gone, and in their stead, fine large brick blocks, and goods selling at fair prices, considering the distance of transportation. There is a fine view of the Rocky Mountains from here. Can see in the distance Pike's and Longs Peak, covered with continual snow. I have seen the narrow gauge railroad that there has been so much talk about. It is to run from here to the Rio Grand, they are now running the cars about 40 miles. The locomotives and cars look quite small. All think here it will do a fine business.

MARK.

WHAT is that which is made to a train, travels with a train, is of no use to a train, but a train cannot travel without it? The noise.

There are few men hopelessly and disadvantageously situated, that they cannot rise and succeed in any right and reasonable undertaking.

THE AMERICAN WASHER?

PRICE $5.50

THE AMERICAN WASHER SAVES MONEY, TIME, AND DRUDGERY.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, the ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of the LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any tub and taken of at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once becomes the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others, and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER, is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS.

LESSONS TO BE LEARNED FROM THE LAST ELECTION.

The official returns in Lycoming county show that the Democratic party is not true to its friends, the naturalized Irish citizens of this country. "For the first time since that party was organized, the Republicans have elected a Sheriff, a Prothonotary and Judge," in Lycoming county. How was this done? We will answer. The Democratic party will not vote for an Irishman for any of the good offices as the following facts fully prove. Michael Kelly, a representative Irishman, a man of good character and one who had worked for years for the Democratic organization, made up his mind that it was high time he should be rewarded. He asked for the nomination of High Sheriff of the county. The Democratic convention assembled and Michael was duly and fairly decided to be the nominee of the party for that office.

The campaign opened and Michael Kelly, of course, thought he was certain of the whole Democratic vote of his county, and, therefore, his election was sure. But what are the facts? We want Irishmen to look at them. We want you to look at the figures. Gen. McCandless the Democratic candidate had a majority over Stanton of 385 votes. Cooper for Surveyor General, over Beath the Republican candidate for the same office, had a majority of 359 votes. But Michael Kelly, Democratic candidate for High Sheriff, in the same Democratic county, was beaten by S. Van Buskirk Republican, for the same office by a majority of 340 votes. Showing clearly and conclusively that the Democrats of Lycoming county, would not vote for an Irish Catholic, and proving just as conclusively that they did vote for S. Van Buskirk, his Republican opponent for the same office, giving Van Buskirk nearly the same majority which they gave to McCandless and Cooper. Who are the know-nothings now? Will Meek please answer? Irishmen look to your interest. Come out from among the foul party. Strike for your own interests. Strike and vote with the party that sustains American industry. That gives you employment. The party which declares that England shall not rule America, nor oppress Ireland. Will you think? Will you listen to reason? Will you believe the truth when it is as clear as a sunbeam?

"There is one feature of the contest in this county, which is peculiarly significant and instructive, if the parties most concerned see it in its true light. The Democratic party has always professed great friendship for the foreign born voters. They have been particularly loud in their professions of friendship for Irishmen. They have used them on all occasions and by the Irish vote they have been helped to get offices and to keep them. They have been free to use the Irish as tools, at all times. But, when a representative Irishman is nominated for a good, responsible and profitable office, he is defeated by his professed friends. They may have the office of Policeman, township or ward Assessor, or School Director, but when they ask for so good an office as Sheriff, the old Know Nothing element, which is quietly slumbering within the Democratic ranks, breaks out and sure defeat follows. They plainly tell their Irish allies that Irishmen must take back seats. They must be content to be hewers of wood and drawers of water for the Democrats, but they must not aspire to the good offices. These are reserved for native born Democrats."

ELECTION MURDERS.

Three colored men were atrociously murdered in Philadelphia on election day without provocation. Their only offense was voting the Republican ticket. It was done by the Democrats of that city. The Press says:

Sheriff Leeds, offers, by public advertisement, a thousand dollars reward for the arrest and conviction of each of the murderers of the three colored men killed on election day. Mr. Hill, chairman of the City Executive Committee, makes the same offer for the assassin of Mr. Catto. We trust to see all these sums claimed and paid within a short time. If there is anything the community of Philadelphia demands of her law officers it is the conviction of the murderers of Catto. Such an offence cannot go unpunished without injuring every interest we possess. It is to be noted that all these colored men were killed in one precinct of one ward—the Eighth precinct of the Fourth ward—which gave 600 Democratic majority. It is not much to boast of when apparently, a Republican vote costs a life.

We are gratified and not surprised to learn that the assassination of Professor Catto has aroused the sympathy of all classes, and that many Democrats join in condemnation of the bloody deed.

THE KU-KLUX REIGN OF TERROR.

No. I.

The testimony taken by the Select Committee of Congress, appointed at the last session to investigate into alleged Ku-Klux outrages in the Southern States, and last enables us to get a comprehensive view of the operations of that mysterious organization known as the Ku Klux Klan—an organization that has been poohpoohed by Northern Democratic politicians as a mere figment of the imagination, but which, under the light of the searching investigation conducted by the Committee, has disclosed itself as one of the most monstrous growth to which civilized society ever gave birth. Indeed, it may almost be said to stand without a parallel in history—a huge, misshapen reptile spawned from the foul decay of slavery and rebellion. It is proposed in this and the following papers to present such a brief abstract, as space will permit, of some of the testimony, which amounts in all to several thousand pages, thus permitting the reader to form his own opinion from facts, of which no mere general statement, however strong, could convey anything like an adequate conception. These official documents, comprising the sworn statements of men of the highest character and social station, and of all shades of political opinion, could not fail to convince the most skeptical reader that the Ku Klux organization is, indeed, no myth, but one of the most horrible realities in the history of human passion and crime. It is only possible to give the briefest abstract of the testimony, but this will be amply sufficient to show the utterly diabolical character of the order, and the disloyal animus of its acts. We shall withhold, in some instances, the names of the witness, for reasons which the reader can readily appreciate in the light which the testimony throws upon the fearful hazard incurred by those persons who, in the Ku Klux infested districts, make themselves obnoxious to these midnight prowlers. We begin with the State of

MISSISSIPPI.

Among the most interesting and explicit of the testimony taken was that of Colonel A. P. Huggins, of Aberdeen, Monroe county, United States Assessor of Internal Revenue at that point, and County Superintendent of Schools under the State government. In the latter office, to which he was appointed in 1870, he was President of the County Board of School Directors, whose duty it was to submit to the Board of Supervisors an estimate of the amount of taxes needed for school purposes, the latter board being charged with the duty of making the assessment. The estimate submitted by the Board of Directors was less by nearly one-third than the amount of tax allowed by law, but the Ku Klux of the county notified the Board of Supervisors not to make the assessment, and it was not done. The law of the State was thus successfully set at defiance, and the teachers of the county were unable to get their pay for services rendered. In this county (Monroe) the Ku Klux reigned supreme for many months, large bands of them, decked in their frightful regalia, riding through the county by night, and whipping, murdering, and burning at will. Here are some of the special cases testified to by Col. Huggins.

In August, 1870, one Saunders Flint (colored) and two sons, having had a quarrel with three white men, had been committed to jail to await their trial for assault and battery. One night during the month mentioned the jail was broken open and they were taken out by a gang of fifty disguised men (Ku Klux.) The father by some means escaped, but both the sons were killed. Three men were arrested as members of this gang, but in January last their cases were dismissed, and they were set at liberty. This proof that there was no danger from the courts was the signal for a general outbreak of Ku Klux violence, and outrages succeeded each other with frightful rapidity.

February 1st.—Alfred Whitfield (colored) was whipped till he promised to vote the Democratic ticket. Witness saw his back, which was "badly pounded up."

February 3d.—An old colored man, name forgotten, was beaten till he made the same promise.

February 10th.—Jack Dupree, (colored,) president of a Republican club, and living near Ross' Mill, was dragged from his bed by a gang of Ku Klux, taken five miles into the woods, and beaten till he was near dead. The fiends in human form then cut him open "from throat to straddle" and took out his heart and intestines. This was attested by Joseph Davis, a member of the gang, who turned State's evidence at Oxford, and who was present on the occasion in question. Dupree was charged with no crime; but it is said he "was a noisy Republican and would speak his mind." The penalty on freedom of speech in this part of Mississippi seems to be heavier than that on murder.

March 9th.—Witness was lodging at the house of one Geo. R. Ross. He was taken out by a gang of 120 masked and mounted men in white robes, and, on refusing to promise that he would leave the State, was beaten till he fainted, receiving seventy-five lashes with a stirrup strap. The particulars of this case have heretofore been made public through the press. Witness was threatened with certain death should he remain in the county longer than ten days.

Mr. Farmer, teacher of a colored school, severely whipped and ordered to leave his school. Mr. Farmer was a man of high respectability and superior culture. His only offense was teaching a colored school. He was obliged to leave.

March 11th.—Aleck Stewart (colored) whipped by a band of Ku Klux for suing a white man for wages due him. Stewart is "a quiet, hard-working man."

Alfred Skinner (colored) attacked in his house by a gang of Ku Klux, who fired through windows, &c., but without hitting inmates. Compelled to leave his home for safety. (March, 1871.)

Joe Atkins (colored) beaten severely and told that it was "for being a Radical." Was compelled to leave his home. (March, 1871.)

A colored man (name unknown) who had been in the Union army, whipped for leaving employer without consent. (March, 1871.)

March 29th.—Aleck Page (colored) dragged from his house, whipped almost to death, and then hung. Head split open with an axe. Buried with rope round his neck. Sworn to by Joseph Davis and Henry Hatch, members of the Klan, who turned State's evidence. Page was "a perfectly quiet and inoffensive man," but a Republican.

May 20th.—Abraham Wamble, a colored preacher, taken out by fifty or sixty masked men and shot. Mr. Marshall, a bitter Democrat, on whose place Wamble lived, states that he did not know a more quiet and well-disposed man in the neighborhood. But he voted the Radical ticket.

April 1.—Tom Hornderger (colored) dragged from his house by thirty or forty Ku Klux and killed. Body riddled with shot. No offense alleged against him.

April 4.—Peter —— (colored, last name unknown to witness) whipped, with his neck under a fence rail, till he promised to vote the Democratic ticket.

Dr. Ebart and Mr. McCoy, members of the County Board of School Directors, were ordered by the Ku Klux to leave the Board, and did so, being threatened with death in case of refusal. This was early in April last.

About the same time all the teachers east of the Tombigbee, in this county, (Monroe,) were waited upon by the Ku-Klux and ordered to close their schools, and did so. The Ku Klux went round in a body to each teacher. A crowd of them entered the bed-room of a Miss Allen, from Genesee, Illinois, struck a light, and made her promise to close her school, and leave on the following Wednesday.

Mr. Easton Ebart, teaching the Union School at Aberdeen, was visited by Ku Klux about this time and ordered to "get out of there." He was told that he might teach a pay school, but should not be paid out of the public funds. He was a Southern gentleman, and the only objection to him was his connection with the free school system.

Twenty-six schools were interrupted about this time, and three school houses were burned. Two of the latter were those of white free schools.

Rev. Mr. Galloway, a Congregational minister, in Lowndes county, was waited upon some time in June and told that he must stop his preaching. He is a white man, a native of Mississippi, and a college graduate. His offenses seemed to be preaching to freedmen, having taught a colored school, and being a Republican.

April 6.—D. McLachlan, a Methodist minister, at Starksville, Oktibbeha county, was visited twice and ordered to leave the place. He was finally forced to go. He belonged to the Northern M. E. Church.

March 30.—Cornelius McBride, a teacher of a colored school in Chickasaw county, was taken out at night, received one hundred and seventy-five lashes, and compelled to leave the neighborhood to save his life. He is a well educated and respectable man.

The Ku Klux stopped the collection of the school tax in Lowndes county, and compelled the county officers to return all that had been collected.

The above cases, except where otherwise specified, all occurred in Monroe county. In only two of these cases have there been any legal proceedings against the perpetrators of the outrages. One of these was the Flint case, in which the three men charged with participation in that crime were discharged last January, as above stated. The other was the murder of Aleck Page, for which indictments were found against twenty-eight members of the gang. These men were released on bail; and, although the indictments against them were for murder in the first degree, they were received, on their return home, with shoutings, the firing of cannon, and every demonstration of popular sympathy.

The members of these bands, so far as known, are all Democrats, their victims invariably Republicans; and their outrages inspired such terror among the colored people, that, to use the language of the witness, they "dared not even go to town." Witness believes that if an election had been held in Monroe county before the Government sent troops there a few months ago, scarcely a freedman in the entire county could have been induced to cast his vote.

MARTIAL LAW!

On October 12, in the interests of peace and order, and for the protection of the loyal men of South Carolina, President Grant issued a warning proclamation to the organization in that State commonly known as the Kuklux Klan. In that proclamation he commanded these lawless conspiracies to disband, and their members to disperse and to deliver to the United States marshal, his deputies, or the military officers, their arms, ammunition, uniforms, and disguises within five days thereof. Failing to comply with this demand, disregarding the warning, and inviting the stern rigor of military rule, the Kuklux of South Carolina have brought martial law upon their State. Elsewhere we print the proclamation of the President suspending the writ of habeas corpus in the counties of Spartanburg, York, Marion, Chester, Laurens, Newberry, Fairfield, Lancaster, and Chesterfield.

This is the hardest blow yet struck at the Kuklux Klan. It will end the reign of terror in South Carolina and the midnight murders and scourgings of innocent men. It will lead to developments which will convince every fair-minded man of the dangerous character of the combination and its real objects. It will unfold a fearful story of wrong, of persecution, of long suffering and silence, beside which even the miseries of the people of Chicago, were they trebled, would appear trifling.

Our readers will remember the visit of the sub-committee of the joint select committee on the alleged outrages in the South to South Carolina, and the letters of our special correspondent who accompanied it. Hundreds of victims of the fiends of the Klans were examined, but the tale was not half told. Murders and cruel whippings by the Kuklux had so terrified them that, in many neighborhoods, nearly every negro man and Republican white man had slept in the woods for months every night. They showed scarified backs, gunshot wounds, maimed ears, and other proofs of the violence they had suffered. The assassinations in three counties aggregated scores, the whippings thousands.

President Grant's proclamation is simple justice—nothing more. Not even the brave and fearless Judge Hugh L. Bond could awe the Kuklux of South Carolina, which is organized with military precision, is based upon perjury, and exists in a community which, to its eternal shame be it said, countenances its crimes. The President's action is prompt and can be attributed to no partisan motive. South Carolina holds no election this year, and the Democratic apologists for the cruellest inquisition in history cannot raise their usual cry.

No other law than martial is strong enough to meet the case, and no more fortunate time for applying it could have been chosen. After awhile, when the unrepentant rebels of the South shall have been taught again the power of the Government and the majesty of American citizenship, we may have universal peace and protection all over the land.—Phila., Press.

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND.

Great Excitement in Ku-Kluxdom—"The Guilty Flee"—People Taking Refuge in the Swamps to Escape Arrest—The United States Authorities Capturing Large Number of the Klan—A Pitched Battle on Broad River—A "Den" of the Order Surrenders.

COLUMBIA, S. C., October 21.—Information has been received here from York and the adjoining counties of Spartansburg and Chester, stating that the greatest excitement exists there, owing to the summary proceedings of United States Marshal and troops. Forty-four citizens were arrested and crammed into the jail, which is already full of negroes. Several hundred citizens have deserted their homes in consequence of the wholesale arrest, and sought refuge in the woods until an opportunity presents itself to seek safety in more distant flight. A reign of terror exists in that entire section of the State, and depredations are being committed on the property of citizens who have fled by negroes and other evil disposed persons. A fight is said to have taken place on Broad river between a band of Ku-Klux and United States troops, and the conflict was so severe that reinforcements have been called for.

WASHINGTON, October 21.—Advices received here from South Carolina state that at Spartansburg, on Wednesday evening last, a Ku-Klux den consisting of a chief and twenty members, surrendered to United States Marshall Johnson, with their arms and disguises. Up to Friday morning seventy arrests had been made in the vicinity of that town alone. Spartanburg is known to be the headquarters for that Congressional District. Arrests have been made in other counties, but the number is not known here. Attorney-General Akerman is still with Colonel Merrill. A number of well known citizens are missing, including Lyle, a member of the Legislature, who is reported to be Chief of the Ku-Klux klan for that district. Among those who have disappeared are two or three clergymen known for their strong rebel proclivities. The officers of the law are proceeding steadily with work, and before the arrests are all made they will have evidence to show the existence of a deep and wide conspiracy against the State, the laws and all who sustain them. Most of the Ku-Klux refugees are known to have fled to Georgia, where the order is quite strong. The Grand Cyclops for that State is believed to be the son-in-law of Robert Toombs.

JOSEPH W. LEWIS, Esq.

The losses of the Company by the Chicago Fire will be less than $2,500,000, a loss which will in no way affect the strength of the company. To avoid any possible sacrifice of the AMERICAN SECURITIES held by the company, the New York Board of Directors are authorised to draw on London for the prompt settlement of all losses as soon as properly adjusted.

Curious Clocks.

The first instrument used for noting the hours was probably the sun-dial. But some means of reckoning was needed when the sky was overcast.—To meet this want the clepsydra was invented. It consisted of a vessel containing water, which dropped slowly through a small orifice, while afloat in the vessel receiving it indicated by its height the lapse of time. The sand glass, still used for many purposes was also an ancient invention; but the exact date of the invention of clocks is unknown. By some they are supposed to have originated among the monks; but as the Saracens are known to have had them in the eleventh century, it is much more probable that they were introduced into European monasteries by the Crusaders.

Alfred the Great contrived a candle clock, which was formed of six candles each divided by pins into twelve inches. These lighted successively and burned four hours each, at the rate of an inch for every twenty minutes. Thus the six candles lasted twenty-four hours.

In 809 Haroun al Rachid presented a clock to Charlemagne, in which were twelve doors that opened successively at each hour, and continued open until noon, when the knights on horseback then paraded around the dial, and disappeared within the doors which closed after them. The Emperor Saladin gave Frederick the Second a clock which marked not only the hours but also the course of the sun, moon and planets. Some years ago the Emperor of China received from the East India Company a clock in the form of a chariot, in which was seated a lady; on her finger was a bird set in diamonds and rubies, with its wings expanded, as if about to take its flight and which fluttered for some time when a certain diamond button was touched. The body of the bird, which contained the machinery by which it was moved, measured about the sixteenth part of an inch. Over the lady's head were two umbrellas, under the larger of which a bell was placed at some distance from the clock, and apparently having no connection with it, but from which communication was secretly conveyed to a hammer that regularly struck the hour. At her feet was a gold dog, before which were two birds on spiral springs, having their wings and feathers set with stones of various colors. They appeared to be flying with the chariot which by a hidden motion was made to run in any direction, a boy stationed at the back seeming to push it forward. Above the umbrellas were flowers and ornaments of precious stones, terminating in a flying dragon, set in the same manner. The whole was of gold, curiously wrought and embellished with rubies and pearls.

Droz, a mechanic of Geneva, produced an instrument which excelled all others in ingenuity. On it were seated a negro, a shepherd and a dog. When the clock struck, the shepherd played six tunes on his flute, and the dog approached and fawned upon him. This wonderful machine was exhibited to the king of Spain, who was greatly delighted with it.

"The gentleness of my dog," said Droz, "is his least merit. If your Majesty touch one of the apples which you see in the shepherd's basket, you will admire the animal's fidelity."

The king took an apple, and the dog flew at his hand, barking so loud that the king's dog, which was in the room began to bark also. At this the courtiers, not doubting that it was an affair of witchcraft, hastily left the room, crossing themselves as they departed. Having desired the minister of marine (the only one who ventured to remain) to ask the negro what o'clock it was, the minister did so, but obtained no reply. Droz then observed that the negro had not yet learned Spanish, upon which the question was repeated in French, when the black immediately answered him. At this new prodigy the firmness of the minister also forsook him, and he retreated precipitately, declaring that it must be the work of a supernatural being. It is probable that in the performance of these tricks Droz touched certain springs in the mechanism, although this is not mentioned in any of the accounts of his clock.

The largest clock in the world is that of the cathedral in Strasburg. It is one hundred feet high, thirty wide, and fifteen deep. It has also wonderful automata connected with it, and has performed its allotted duties for nearly three hundred years.

In Transit.

We start in life an unbroken company; brothers and sisters, friends and lovers, neighbors and comrades are with us; there is circle within circle, and each one of us is at the charmed centre where the heart's affections are aglow, and whence they radiate outward upon society. Youth is exuberant with joy and hope, the earth looks fair for it sparkles with May dews yet, and no shadow hath fallen upon it. We are all here, and we could live forever. The home centre is on the hither side of the river, and why should we strain our eyes to look beyond? But this state of things does not continue long. Our circle grows less and less. It is broken, and then closes up again; but every break and close makes it narrower and smaller. Perhaps before the sun is at its meridian the majority are on the other side; the circle there is as large as the one here, and we are drawn contrariwise, and vibrate between the two. A little longer, and we have almost crossed over; the balance settles down on the spiritual side, and the home centre is removed to the upper shore. At length you see nothing but an aged pilgrim standing alone on the river's brink, and looking earnestly toward the country on the other side. In the morning, the large and goodly company, rejoicing together with music and wine; in the evening, dwindled down to that solitary old man, the last of his family, and the last of his generation, waiting to go home, and filled with pensive memories of the long ago!

WOMAN.—To the honor of the sex, be it said, that in the path of duty no sacrifice is with them too high or too dear. Nothing is with them impossible but to shrink from what love, honor, innocence and religion require. The voice of pleasure or of power may pass by unheeded, but the voice of affliction never. The chamber of the sick, the pillow of the dying, the vigils of the dead, the altars of religion, never missed the presence or the sympathies of woman. Timid though she be, and so delicate that the winds of heaven may not too roughly visit her, on such occasions she loses all sense of danger, and assumes a preternatural courage, which knows not and fears not consequences. Then she displays that undaunted spirit which neither courts difficulties nor evades them, that resignation which utters neither murmurs nor regret, and that patience in suffering which seems victorious even over death itself.

THE man who can make his own fire, black his own boots, carry his own wood, hoe his own garden, pay his own debts, and live without wine or tobacco, need ask no favor of him who rides in a coach and four.

PRESERVE your conscience always soft and sensitive. If but one sin force its way into that tender part of the soul and dwells there, the road is paved for a thousand iniquities.

EVERY man deems that he has precisely the trials and temptations which are the hardest of all for him to bear; but they are so because they are the very ones he needs.

HOWEVER many friends you have, do not neglect yourself; though you have a thousand, not one of them loves you so much as you ought to love yourself.

No man can tell the misery of an unloved and lonely child; in after life a degree of hardness comes with years and the man is not susceptible of pain like a child.

HOW is it that the trees can put on a new dress without opening their trunks? Because they leave out their summer clothing.

A Smart Dutchman.

Old Starks, an honest German, had a farm about three miles from the village of Naples, on the Illinois river, and, like most of his countrymen who settle in this country, was great on garden truck, butter, eggs, &c., which he carried regularly to the town to sell or barter for family supplies. One day he came in as usual, and Peter Crister, the store keeper, thinking to get a "saw" on the old man, said:—

"Well, Starks, got some more eggs?"

"Yah, I have a few."

"I paid you a bit for the last," said Mr. Crister, "but we have had a convention of the store keepers, and they have resolved to give only ten cents in future."

"Y-a-h. Vell, mine hens they have a meetin'," replied Starks, "an' dey resolves wot dey won't wear 'emselves out layin' eggs for less as foofteen shents!" And the old man stalked off, leaving Pete to stand the laugh of the crowd.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,

For restoring Grey Hair to its natural Vitality & Color.

A dress which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Fresh or gray hair is restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparation dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

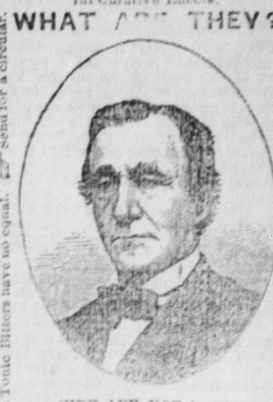
Medical.

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,
Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?



They are a Gentle Purgative as well as Tonic, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful remedy while they exert the full curative power of the best of purgatives. They are a Great Blood Purifier, and a Life Giving Principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.
Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

Gleanings.

WHAT a man does is the real test of what a man is.

BE praised not for your ancestors, but for your virtues.

GOOD qualities are incomprehensible to those who have them not.

THE Ohio River is going into a decline. It keeps its bed, and is quite low.

How canst thou be a judge of another's heart that dost not know thine own.

PRICELESS as the gift of utterance may be, the practice of silence in some respects far excels it.

SEE the sack open before you buy what is in it; for he who trades in the dark asks to be cheated.

IT is always in our power to make a friend by smiles; what a folly, then, to make an enemy by frowns.

WE cannot conquer fate and necessity; yet we can yield to them in such a manner as to be greater than if we could.

No person ever got stung by hornets who kept away from where they were. It is just so with bad habits.

VALUE the friendship of him who stands by you in the storm; swarms of insects will surround you in the sunshine.

GOOD nature, like a bee, collects honey from every herb. Ill nature, like a spider, sucks poison from the sweetest flower.

ADDISON says, "Prejudice and self-sufficiency naturally proceed from inexperience of the world and ignorance of mankind."

AN hour's industry will do more to produce cheerfulness, suppress evil humors and retrieve your affairs, than a month's mourning.

LOVE is the soul, the life, and animating principle of truth; and so far only as there is good in truth, so far only there is life in it.

BENEFIT your friends that they may love you still more dearly; benefit your enemies, that they may become your friends.

TRUTHFULNESS is a corner-stone in character; and if it be not firmly laid in youth, there will always be a weak spot in the foundation.

THERE are men who, by long consulting only their own inclinations, have forgotten that others have a claim to the same deference.

WE should study in all things to conciliate and cherish continually that charity and forgiving spirit which we would have exercised toward us.

WHATEVER you would not wish your neighbors to do to you, do it not unto them. This is the whole law; the rest is merely the exposition of it.

THE very best and the very worst of men are not as good or as bad as they seem to be. Calculate accordingly in estimating your fellow man.

REAL fidelity may be rare, but it exists in the heart. They only deny its worth and power who never loved a friend, nor labored to make one happy.

IT is a great blunder in the pursuit of happiness not to know that we have got it; that is, not to be content with a reasonable and possible measure of it.

EVERY human creature is sensible to some infirmities of temper, which it should be his care to correct and subdue, particularly in the early period of life.

THE mind, as well as the body, needs its gymnasium. Each faculty should be developed to its appropriate power, and the whole moulded into symmetry.

BOOKS are company, and the company of bad books is as dangerous as the company of bad associates, while that of good books is like that of good men.

LEARN that happiness is not out side, but inside. A good heart and a clear conscience bring happiness, which no riches and no circumstances alone ever do.

To be happy, the passions must be cheerful and gay, not gloomy and melancholy. A propensity to hope and joy is real riches; one to fear and sorrow, real poverty.

EVE had some advantages that no other married woman ever enjoyed, chief among which was the fact that her husband could never lacerate her heart by telling "how his mother used to cook."

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, October 25, 1871.

REPAIRING.—Henry Brockerhoff Esq. is repairing his pavement on Bishop st.

T. NAST'S and Josh Billing's Almanacs are rich and full of fun—buy them at Rankin's Model Book Store.

LOST!—A Ladies' Gold Watch and Gold Locket, with short black chain, was lost on Friday, Oct. 20, between Bellefonte and Boiling Spring.

Ten Dollars reward will be paid for its safe return. Apply at Frank P. Blairs jewelry store, Bellefonte. 40-2t

DR. J. D. WINGATE.—This Professional gentleman having returned from Carbondale where he has been spending some months professionally, will remain in Bellefonte, to attend to the wants of his old customers and friends for a few weeks. All those wanting a good job in Dentistry will avail themselves of this opportunity.

FIRE.—The dwelling house owned by Wm. Reside, occupied by Henry Smoyer, was burned to ashes on Monday October 2d about 12 o'clock M. It is supposed that it caught fire from a defective flue. Mr. Smoyer's property, we understand, was all destroyed. We have not learned as to whether the parties were insured.

BLIND TOM.—Blind Tom the great musical prodigy is coming to town and will display his most marvelous, musical genious in Reynold's Hall, on next Monday evening the 30th inst. Blind Tom is the Son of ordinary Southern field hands, was sightless from birth—his very soul overflowing with musical genious. It is wonderful. Everybody should go and hear him.

ENTERPRISE.—The Round House of the B. & S. S. R. R. is almost completed. The brick work is finished. The roof will be completed in a few weeks. The timber is all on the ground for the new tracks, and great energy is displayed in pushing it to a final completion.

This House is another standing monument to the genious and energy of Daniel Rhoads, Esq., the gentlemanly Superintendent of the B. & S. S. R. R.

BIG YIELD.—Some time since when we had not time to attend to "locals" the Watchman boasted of some Democrat on Moshannon raising over five bushels of potatoes on 24 square feet of ground. Now we have a good Republican reporting to us from Penn township—that stronghold of Democracy—that Mr. Saml Sivels Post Master at Millheim and a simon pure Republican, raised seven bushels and one peck of potatoes from a piece of ground 25 feet square. Let the Watchman try again. It was this kind of yield in the Republican ranks in the State, which beat McCandless 15,000, and cut Meek's majority down from 714 in 1870 to 386 in 1871.—We hope our farmers will go on raising big potatoes and good Republicans.

CHICAGO RELIEF.—The following letter just received, explains the manner in which a large portion of the Chicago Relief fund has been disposed of. The amount for which the Mayor of Chicago has drawn upon the Treasurer of the fund very nearly exhausts the sum collected. It is hoped that the remainder of the subscriptions will be paid without delay:—

CHICAGO, October 20th, 1871.

JAMES A. BEAVER, Esq., Treasurer of Chicago Relief Fund, Bellefonte, Centre Co., PA: Dear Sir:—In accordance with your esteemed favor of 13th inst. I have this day drawn upon you for the sum of one thousand dollars, (1000) in favor of the Chicago Relief and aid society,

By the enclosed proclamation you will observe that I have transferred the work of receiving and distributing contributions for the relief of the sufferers by the late fire to that society.

Again thanking you, and those who joined you in this noble work. I am Faithfully Yours,

R. B. MASON, Mayor of Chicago.

PROTECTION.—It is a word full of meaning. A word which should be fully understood by every farmer and working man in the country. Protection to American industry is the true doctrine. It is this which keeps our manufactories in a prosperous condition and gives employment to thousands of the sturdy sons of toil in America. If this be true, (and who will doubt it?) Are not our merchants and business men guilty of a dereliction of duty when they send their job work to Eastern cities? In this connection we desire to say to those men and to the business public generally that they need not give their work to runners from foreign cities in order to have it done at cheap rates. We can do work as cheap, and in better style, than it can be done by the establishments these men represent. Their jobs are executed in such a manner, that they are not favored with more than one order from the same person, hence they are compelled to go about the country begging for orders for work, and that at various prices in order to get it. Encourage home industry by bringing your printing to the REPUBLICAN office, where all that is desirable in the way of style and price, can be had. Republicans, business men of Centre county, listen to the voice of reason, sustain your organ, strengthen your party and at the same time save your money. Encourage home industry if you wish your business to prosper.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due J. G. Larimore for a bushel of the best and largest potatoes we have ever seen. These potatoes it appears were raised by Mr. Larimore from the potatoe apple, or seed. When grown they were named by some of his frinds as the Larimore potato. As such he presented them to us. In justice to him we wish to say that they are the best potatoes we have ever seen. They are better and more productive than the Harrison, Purple Chili, Calico, Peach-blow, River bottom or the Prince Albert. People should plant none but the best of seed, if they want good crops, and we would advise them to buy and plant the Larimore potato.

John H. Orvis, will please accept our thanks for two splendid Chester white pigs. We will make them weigh 700 pounds next fall. Thanks Jno. H.

Wm. B. Eckley, has the thanks of Proprietor, Editor, journeyman and devil, for a nice lot of Dianah grapes. They were too good to talk about. Mr. Eckley, drew the premium at the fair on his grapes and he deserved it.

Henry Hartsock, presented us the week of the Fair, with the nicest lot of winter apples we have ever beheld Henry is one of the substantial men of the county. If you want good winter apples send in your orders to him.

Gottleib Haag, the enterprising Proprietor of the Pleasant Gap Hotel, has our thanks for 1½ bushels of tomatoes. Mr. Haag and his amiable lady know how to run a Hotel. They set a good table and have the best of everything.

C. W. Lambert, of the Sunny Side Gardens presented us with a fine lot of tomatoes, Cat-sup and Horse radish. Mr. Lambert cannot be beaten in the vegetable business. We want everybody to look out for his Garden Seeds and plants next Spring.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—About one year ago our friend Doctor J. K. Holloway, emigrated from Pennsylvania and located here in Akron, as practicing physician. And notwithstanding the many truly able and renowned physicians in the city; Doctor Holloway has, in one short year, extended his practice in our midst, and gained the confidence of the public in general, to such a degree that but few attain to. The success with which, he daily meets, as a physician, places him far above what is termed a middle class man, and well entitles him to the rank of a first class physician, being able to cope with the best.

The Doctors readiness and skill as a physician and his amiable deportment in the sick room, greatly endear him to the people and awakens confidence and repose in the sick. In short, Dr. Holloway possesses all the needed qualities in the medical profession, and we are truly glad that he has taken up his residence in our midst.

May the same well deserved success which he had in the past, continue to follow him in the future.

HOLD MY COAT.—Once upon a time a Western orator, at a barbacue, or ox-roast, asked a by stander to hold his coat a very stylish one, too, while he was making a stump speech. While the orator was wrestling with the crowd, the man put on the coat and disappeared. Of course the coat was wanted when the speaker got through. Search was made in vain for the thief, who was standing among the audience all the time, but the authorities failed to recognize the wearer. It so improved his looks that his own neighbors failed to recognize him. Reader, if you want to disguise yourself or look genteel, go to Sternburg's, and buy a coat, or a full suit, and one that will fit you, and at the very lowest price.

JOB WORK.—The job material at the Republican office is all or, nearly all new, and of the latest and most beautiful styles, placing us in condition to execute the neatest, as well as the cheapest job-work in town or county. Posters, programmes, sale bills, bill and letter heads, blanks of all kinds, cards, envelopes, tags, and every description of plain and ornamental job work executed on short notice in the most skillful manner and at prices which will compare favorably with those of any establishment in this county or in central Pennsylvania. We have in our employ one of the best job printers in the State. Give us a trial. We guarentee satesfaction.

RESTAURANT.—The Arcade Restaurant, H. H. Stone, Proprietor, is now one of the best and most fashionable Saloons in the Town. He keeps everything that a hungry man can desire. He has the best of tub Oysters at all times by the dozen, by the hundred, or by the thousand. His Restaurant is fitted up for the accomodation of both ladies and gentlemen. No party can go wrong in his place. It is always quiet, genteel and fancy. H. H., himself is a fancy man. Last Sunday we mistook him for the Democratic Congressman from this District. It was no compliment to H. H. Stone.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENTS.—Why is anything made public, but in the belief that it will be of interest to others? Why is it announced that Isaac and Rebecca were married on a certain day last week, but on the supposition that it will give you pleasure to know it? And then, lower down on the sheet, under the standing head of deaths, your eye runs along always with apprehension lest it fall on some well-known name, and reads that the aged father, the young child, the beloved wife, the rich, the poor, the admired, the honored, the beautiful are gone; for is it not taken for granted that the world will respond in sympathy to the incursions of a common foe? Read in this light, the commonest advertisements which crowd our papers have a kindly order about them. Say not with a cynic sneer—as though you were doubtful whether there was anything honest in the world—when a storekeeper advertises his wares, that it is all sheer selfishness; for if it is pleasant for one to announce a fresh supply of tallow and wool, hardware, or muslins, is it not just as pleasant for one who wishes to know it? Business advertisements! Waste paper! You know not what you say. Those ships which are to sail for every harbor in the world; those fabrics which have arrived from every commercial mart on the earth; this iron from Russia, tea from China, cotton from Georgia, sugar from Louisiana—do they not preach to us at the corners of the streets, at the entering of the gates, in our docks, and in custom houses and exchanges, sermons on the mutual dependence of mankind?—Advertizer's Gazette.

MEDICINES and Chemicals of all kinds at Green's.

MILESBURG AHEAD.—By reference to the advertising columns of the REPUBLICAN, it will be seen that John Letterman has purchased the entire interest of W. Morris, Esq., in their mammoth store at Milesburg, Pa., and now proposes to carry on the same himself, more extensively than ever. He has everything usually kept in a dry goods store, and at greatly reduced prices. Mr. Letterman is a clever, obliging, hard working man. It will be his pleasure to please all who may favor him with their custom. He has secured as clerk, that excellent business man and first class accountant Mr. Ed Lipton. Mr. Lipton has been brought up to the business, and no person will dispute our statement when we assert that he has few, if any, equals in the county, as a clerk and book keeper. The people of Centre county, and especially of Bald Eagle Valley will do well by calling to see Mr. Letterman. He holds out great inducements, offers great bargains.

WHOLESALE depot for Mishler's Bitter., at Green's.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—A night school for the benefit of the young men and youth of our town who are too busy to attend our day schools, it is proposed to start and maintain a free night school for instructions in all the ordinary branches of a good education. A full corps of competent teachers, have volunteered for the work. We can safely say that the instruction will be fully equal to that in our day schools. All who desire to attend such a school are requested to meet at the Lecture Room of the Y. M. C. A., in Bush's Arcade on Monday eve. the 30th inst., at 7 o'clock. The attendance will determine the propriety of starting the school.

INSURANCE.—We call the attention of the readers of the REPUBLICAN, to the Advertisement of the Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance Company—James T. Hale & C. E. Anderson, Agents for Centre county. This is one of the most reliable Insurance companies in the world, and to the people of this county, it is not necessary to say, that, had the company hunted the world over they could not have secured better agents than Messrs Hale & Anderson. We will have more to say of these young men and their company.

SPLENDID Pomades for the hair, at Green's.

LOGAN SALOON.—Messrs Downing & Yeager, the gentlemanly Proprietors of the Logan Restaurant opposite the Bush House, make it a specialty to have the best Oysters in the market, choice ham, boiled eggs, and everything else usually kept in a first class Restaurant or eating house. Warm meals at all hours. People on the trains have five minutes to drop off the cars at this Station and take a bite. Downing & Yeager, are clever men and understand their business well. If you are hungry, call and see them.

LEMBERGER'S blacking, sold wholesale at Green's,

DR. S. BELFORD.—This excellent Dentist will be found in his office, Monday Oct. 30th to remain ten days. All persons wishing Dental work done, will do well to give him a call. Dr. Belford is a first class Dentist and a clever man. He understands his business [illegible]

IT IS SAID that if a puff of air were to be blown into a vein of an animal, death would instantaneously follow, because circulation would be stopped. The blood makes the entire circuit of the human body every seven minutes, and whenever this circulation is impeded or any of its channels are clogged by impurities which ought to be carried off, disease follows—fever or a disorder of liver or kidneys, or scrofula, or dyspepsia. To get at and remove the source of the difficulty use the old and infallible blood purifier, DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS. 41-4t

LINN & WILSON.—These gentlemen at their well arranged Drug Store on Allegheny St. have just received another large stock of fresh Drugs, Cemicals, fancy and toilet soaps, hair brushes, tooth brushes &c.,&c., They have also procured the services of Edward T. Hehr who is one of the best Druggists in the country, a careful and skillful prescriptionist in a word he is master of his Profession.

WE advise our readers to preserve this week's supplement for reference, and call at F. P. Greene's rooms in Mrs. Irvin's building, Allegheny st., Bellefonte, where they can see and hear for themselves and be convinsed that,

"Music hath charmes &c.,"

NEW GOODS.—Messrs Graham & Son, have just returned from the East, with an extensive assortment of boots and shoes, from the best manufacturers, the goods are warranted. so we have no hesitency in saying that it is the place. Just what we all need, as Winter is close at hand.

DRUG STORE.—The new Drug Store on Bishop St., owned by Messrs. Zellar & Jarrett is one of the finest in the country. These gentlemen are industrious and attentive to business and are fast growing in favor with the people. They deserve Success. See Advertisement.

A WORD IN TIME.—Parents should see that their children are vaccinated, then they need have no fears of smal pox, which we learn from our exchanges are prevalent in many portions of the country.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Young & Devling have just received another splendid lot of new goods. This is a clever firm. Call and see them.

KU-KLUXISM AND DEMOCRACY.

Originating in Tennessee in 1867, the secret politico-military order, popularly known as the Ku-klux has rapidly spread over the entire South, assuming various names, such as "The Invisible Empire," "The White Brotherhood," "The Council of Safety," "The Invisible Circle," etc. The labors of the Congressional Committee, as well as those of the sub committees that have visited various localities in the South, have brought to the surface and exposed to the light of day a mass of information in the shape of sworn testimony against this secret armed political organization, known by various designations, which is too minute in details and too cumulative in facts to be longer resisted by the demagogues of the party with which they are co-operating. Nor can interested demagogues, in view of the overwhelming evidences of outrage and violence to the persons and property of negroes and white Republicans, truthfully impute them to mere neighborhood prejudice and personal feud.

The sworn testimony discloses the lamentable fact that in a majority of instances the outrages and violence in question have been perpetrated through the agency of intelligent, covert and systematic organization and direction. It is a noteworthy fact that the more active scoundrels composing the order are reserved for deeds of violence, while the more influential and reputable members make themselves useful to the order in controlling public sentiment, furnishing bail-bonds for arrested parties, securing suitable witnesses, and influencing juries. It is these so called respectable and reputable people who assure newspaper correspondents and other inquiring minds that "everything is lovely" in their region. The desperadoes of Southern society find a welcome place in the Klan, and furnish suitable working material when there is to be shedding of blood and other deeds of violence. The fraternal relations which subsist between them and the influential chiefs of this political brotherhood, has an effect the very opposite of deterring them from threatening the lives of good citizens and disturbing the tranquility of our country.

The Ku-Klux order claims a membership of five hundred thousand in the South. Should it be necessary to make a liberal allowance for exaggeration, we [illegible] portion of the Southern people, not to say Northern Democrats, in close and active sympathy with the organization, and ready to co-operate with it, that we may safely state its effective strength at half a million of men, who are, to all intents and purposes, in sympathy with the Democratic party. The testimony taken by the Congressional Committee proves conclusively that the Ku-Klux organization has been devised and is employed to extinguish Republicanism in the South. This conspiracy is alike horrible in its inception and frightful in its results. It has properly become a matter of public solicitude. The accumulated and well attested facts which have resulted from Congressional investigation show that hecatombs of victims have been immolated upon the altar of liberty and country to this Moloch of Southern Democracy. Frightful as is the aggregate, the list is by no means complete. Alas, that the facts compel us to say that not less than ninety-nine per cent of the long procession of the warned, the whipped, the wounded, and the murdered were avowed Republicans, and were maltreated or murdered outright because of their adherence to the Republican party and their support of its candidates, in spite of warnings and menaces!

A fearful responsibility devolves upon Northern Democrats. So long as they continue to hold out the hope to their Southern brethren that, if restored to power, they will adopt and persue a reactionary policy, such as the ultra reactionists forshadowed in the Brodhead letter and still insist upon, just so long will the Ku Klux Democracy strive to render itself serviceable to the common cause. Let conscientious Northern Democrats range themselves at once on the side of oppressed humanity and imperilled nationality, and make explicit and unreserved announcement of their honest purposes through the ballot, thus taking a "new departure" in the best sense of the term.

MORE APPEALS FOR AID.

Before the excitement which followed the destruction of Chicago had died away the most heartrending accounts were received here from Michigan and Wisconsin of ruin and desolation by the same fearful scourge of fire. The flames have extended over hundreds of miles of territory in each of these States, and many hundreds of lives, as well as millions of property, have been swept away. Such a ruthless visitor as fire is unwelcome enough in a great city like Chicago, where help and sympathy are at hand; but in the woods and wilds of the North, where there is no one left to afford either, and where nothing but bleak desolation and suffering remain, it must be ten-fold more so. Thousands of men, women and children have been thus robbed of all shelter, food and clothing, and have to sleep under the open canopy of heaven in a region where days and nights are bleak and cold. Something should be done, and done at once, to supply these poor afflicted people with food and shelter during the coming winter, which is now close at hand. In a few weeks the devastated districts will be practically shut out from the reach of aid by frost and snow, and fearful suffering must result. We are glad to see that the Commercial Exchange Association has taken the matter in hand, and we hope that the fund now being raised by its efforts will be swelled into proportions befitting the occasion. Those able to contribute in funds, blankets or clothing should not hesitate in doing so, as thousands of persons are now suffering from cold and hunger.
